Guidelines for the full-length article

Delegates who want their article to be considered for publication need to submit the full-length paper through https://conference.jssish.com/ on or before March 20 2025

Preparation

1. The Full-length papers must be prepared in accordance with the given template that adheres to the manuscript preparation guidelines of JSS Journal of Interdisciplinary Research (JSS JIR). These guidelines are available at: https://stage-journals.lww.com/jjir/Pages/instructionsforauthors.aspx.
2. Please submit the plagiarism report during submission. The similarity index should be ≤10%. Those who do not have access to the plagiarism software can use the below link to get the plagiarism report through Turnitin on a paid basis

3. Avoid the use of bullets in your article file.
4. Ensure that the combined file size does not exceed 1 MB.
5. Authors submitting multiple papers should upload each one as a separate file.

Evaluation Process

Only those articles formatted according to the above guidelines will be considered for review and publication in JSS Journal of Interdisciplinary Research (JSS JIR). Before the review process commences, the review committee will also do a plagiarism screen. Each manuscript will be reviewed by at least two reviewers with proficiency in the area of research under which the manuscript is submitted.
